

The San Juan Basin Extension Beef Cattle Symposium has become a tradition in SW Colorado and NW New Mexico. Educational programs are important to help us sustain this way of life. The 2012 Beef Cattle Symposium will primarily focus on profitability, animal health, and management. There will be something of interest in this area for everyone who is involved or planning to be involved in beef production. Please join us!

Workshop Fee: $20 per person

Includes Workshop Materials and Lunch

Late Registration: $25 per person

For registrations received (not post-marked) after February 10th.

No lunch or materials guarantee on late registrations.

THANKS TO...

We would also like to say hearty thank you to our long-time sponsors, Basin Coop in Durango and IFA in Cortez for their help in making this program a success each and every year.
