*** Counts towards Year End High Point: You must compete in Showmanship and one English or Western Class to have your points count towards year end awards.

- Daily High Point for Western and English: You MUST compete in Showmanship AND a rail or pattern class to be eligible.
- ☺ Daily High Points for Walk/Trot: You must compete in Showmanship in your appropriate age group in addition to the walk/trot classes.
Walk/Trot will combine points earned in English and Western in addition to Showmanship.
- Daily High Point for Gymkhana: Points will be combined from Barrels, Flags and Poles. You ARE NOT required to participate in Showmanship or any other English or Western class.
- High Point is based on one horses/one rider combination
- Showmanship will count towards both English and Western High Point regardless of attire and placing will be used as a tie breaker
- Those participating in Walk/Trot classes may not participate in Walk/Trot/Canter classes with the exception of gymkhana classes.
- Governed by 2009 Colorado State 4-H Rule Book
- No Stallions and NO Dogs Allowed on grounds
