MARKET SWINE

Division 400

Department 440

Superintendents - Alan Meyer

Judging: 4:00 p.m.

Monday, August 3

RULES:

1. All hogs must have at least one notch in each ear; notches should be uniform, healed by the time of the County Fair and per National Swine Registry rules, any hogs that have questionable notches or do not match the swine ID forms will not be allowed to show.
2. All participants must be currently certified with a Youth Pork Quality Assurance Plus certificate.
3. An exhibitor can bring a maximum of 4 market pigs. If an exhibitor has 1-2 pigs, they will receive 1 pen; with 3-4 pigs, 2 pens will be allotted. Family members will be required to group pigs together if pens are needed. All Swine exhibits will be bedded with wood chips, provided by the exhibitor.
4. No straw will be allowed.
5. Clipping of hogs is prohibited at the fairgrounds.
6. Swine must be shown without hair dressing compounds, including oils, paints, powders, and other dressings.
7. It is highly recommended that if pigs are clipped, the pigs should have at least 1/2 inch of hair on the body, except for the head and tail. Packers are concerned about buying short clipped pigs. Also, this rule is highly recommended by most swine judges.
8. Market swine must be at the fairgrounds by 6:00 p.m. Sunday, August 2.
9. Pens will have two 2"x10" boards bolted on the top of pens for tack.

10. In the market swine, classes will be broken down with approximately the same number of animals in each class. Classes may be broken with same weight animals in two different classes. (This will be more equitable for determining sale eligibility).

MASTER SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST

Department 550

Superintendent -- Dan Kendrick

Wednesday, August 5

2:00 p.m. - Grooming and questions by the judges

2:30 p.m. - Showmanship

The first place winners in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Showmanship for Beef, Dairy, Goat, Horse, Sheep and Swine will compete in the Master Showmanship Contest. There must be representation from the three age divisions within each species in order to participate in the Master Showmanship Contest.

Any exhibitor winning first in more than one division will elect which species he will show in the Master Showmanship Contest. The next exhibitor in line in the division not elected will represent that division in the Master Showmanship Contest.

Contestants will be judged on their skill as showmen and on the appearance their animals make before the judge. The judges will consider the following:

A. PREPARATION AND QUESTIONS - 15%

Contestants must have their animal washed and dry by 2:00 p.m., at which time contestants will do final grooming on their animals. Contestants should be prepared to demonstrate their grooming equipment and answer questions about parts of the animal and how they fed and cared for their animal.

B. SHOWING THE ANIMAL - 85%

Exhibitor has control of the animal, has skill in keeping animal position to best advantage, maintains continuous attention, and shows ability to stand or move animal as requested by judge.

Showman should be dressed properly for their species and use the correct equipment. They should display courtesy and sportsmanship in the show ring.
