FOOD PRESERVATION

Division 600

Department 620

Superintendents: Marilyn Blue, Dianne Cox,
Angela Smith, Jennifer Pauley,
Monica Wolfswinkel

All exhibits must adhere to the following rules. An exhibit that does not conform to rules will not be judged.

Exhibit Rules:

1. All entries must have been prepared since the 2008 Morgan County Fair.
2. Jars must be standard quart or smaller size canning jars with two-piece vacuum lids. (Manufacturing date on lid is for company code and will not be used to determine the year exhibit was preserved.)
3. All canned entries must be heat processed using USDA guidelines as published in current Colorado State University Extension food preservation brochures using the time and/or pressure as adjusted for altitude.
4. The approved methods for heat processing are:
 - A. Boiling water bath for high-acid foods (fruits, pickled products, relishes, jams, jellies, preserves or marmalades).
 - B. Pressure canning for low-acid foods (meats and vegetables).
5. NO PARAFFIN may be used on jam, jelly or any other soft spread product.
6. NO FANCY PACK of produce is allowed.
7. NO FOOD COLORING allowed in pickled products.
8. Bands on canning jars MUST be in place when entering exhibits. Judge will remove bands as part of judging. Bands will be replaced for display.
9. Any soft spread (jam, jelly, preserves) and any pickled food may be opened at judging to determine product consistency.
10. Tasting is at the judge's discretion. Soft spreads and pickled foods may be opened for tasting.
11. Any item deemed unsafe by the judge because of information, or lack of information, on the label will not be judged.
12. References used for determining safety of products will be USDA Complete Guide to Home Canning, Ball Blue Book of Preserving and CSU Extension Food Preservation references.

13. All exhibits must be labeled as specified for the the type of product.

Labels on jars should be placed on the side opposite any embossing of name or logo so that name or logo on jar is not covered.

Canned exhibits must be labeled with:

- * Name of product
- * Date of preservation
- * Preparation Method (raw pack, hot pack, or other type of pack)
- * Processing Method
- * Pounds of pressure if pressure processed
- * Length of processing time
- * Elevation where processed

Dried exhibits must be labeled with:

- * Name of product
- * Date product was dried
- * Any pre-treatment that was used
- * Name of any added ingredients
- * Method used for drying

Jerky exhibits must be made using an approved procedure from Colorado State University Extension. Procedure used must be attached to exhibit.

Judging:

Exhibits will be judged using the following criteria:

1. Appropriate headspace for the product canned.
 - * 1/4 inch for jams, jellies, relishes, pickles,
 - * 1/2 inch for fruits, tomatoes, sauerkraut
 - * 1 inch for vegetables and meat.
2. Product pieces should be uniform in size and be packed snugly, (not fancy pack) but allow for circulation of liquid within the jar.
3. Liquid should cover the product and should be clear and free from cloudiness and small particles. Air bubbles must be minimal.
4. Exhibit should be free from defects, blemishes or strings and should not contain any stems, seeds, pits and peels UNLESS this in in keeping with the approved recipe.
5. Product should retain its natural characteristic color or as nearly that of standard cooked product. It should not have undue color loss.
6. Product should maintain its shape and size appropriate for preparation method.

Colorado State Fair Outreach Program Creative Arts Division

To encourage exhibits from Morgan County, Morgan County Commissioners promote participation by individuals in the Creative Arts Division at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo. Any item that meets State Fair exhibit requirements in the Creative Arts Division is eligible. Exhibits DO NOT have to be shown at a county fair to be eligible for State Fair. Blue Ribbon winners at the 2007 Morgan County Fair are especially encouraged to enter items in Creative Arts.

The State Fair Outreach Program will collect exhibits at the Morgan County Extension Center and transport them to Pueblo. Entry information will be available at the Morgan County Extension Center after June 1 or can be found on the State Fair website: www.coloradostatefair.com under Fair Entry Information and General Entry.

Eligible Exhibits: Creative Arts Division

- Food Preservation
- Needle Arts
- Clothing Construction
- Rugs
- Embroidery/Needlepoint
- Knitting/Crocheting
- Tatting/Lace
- Quilting
- Weaving
- Arts & Crafts
- Tole/Decorative Painting
- Miscellaneous Crafts
- Dolls
- Porcelain Art

Outreach does not include Fine Arts.

State Fair Fine Arts is a juried show with entries due earlier.

Entry Collection: Morgan County Extension
914 E. Railroad, Fort Morgan
Monday, July 7 - Friday, July 11: 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Monday, July 14 - Friday, July 18: 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Information: Contact Morgan County Extension at 970-542-3544 for entry information, fees and instructions for packing Exhibits.

Exhibit Return: Exhibits will be available for pickup at the Extension on Monday, September 8.

Liability: The Morgan County Extension or Morgan County Commissioners are not responsible in any way for loss, accident or damage to exhibits.
