MARKET SWINE

Division 400

Department 440

Superintendents - Alan Meyer, Claire Dixon

Judging: 4:00 p.m.

Monday, August 4

RULES:

1. All hogs must have at least one notch in each ear; notches should be uniform, healed by the time of the County Fair and per National Swine Registry rules, any hogs that have questionable notches or do not match the swine ID forms will not be allowed to show.
2. All participants must be currently certified through the Youth Pork Quality Assurance Program.
3. An exhibitor can bring a maximum of 4 market pigs. If an exhibitor has 1-2 pigs, they will receive 1 pen; with 3-4 pigs, 2 pens will be allotted. Family members will be required to group pigs together if pens are needed. All Swine exhibits will be bedded with wood chips, provided by the exhibitor.
4. No straw will be allowed.
5. Clipping of hogs is prohibited at the fairgrounds.
6. Swine must be shown without hair dressing compounds, including oils, paints, powders, and other dressings.
7. It is highly recommended that if pigs are clipped, the pigs should have at least 1/2 inch of hair on the body, except for the head and tail. Packers are concerned about buying short clipped pigs. Also, this rule is highly recommended by most swine judges.

MASTER SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST

Department 550

Superintendent -- Dan Kendrick

Wednesday, August 6

2:00 p.m. - Grooming and questions by the judges

2:30 p.m. - Showmanship

The first place winners in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Showmanship for Beef, Dairy, Goat, Horse, Sheep and Swine will compete in the Master Showmanship Contest. There must be representation from the three age divisions within each species in order to participate in the Master Showmanship Contest.

Any exhibitor winning first in more than one division will elect which species he will show in the Master Showmanship Contest. The next exhibitor in line in the division not elected will represent that division in the Master Showmanship Contest.

Contestants will be judged on their skill as showmen and on the appearance their animals make before the judge. The judges will consider the following:

A. PREPARATION AND QUESTIONS - 30%

Contestants must have their animal washed and dry by 2:00 p.m., at which time contestants will do final grooming on their animals. Contestants should be prepared to demonstrate their grooming equipment and answer questions about parts of the animal and how they fed and cared for their animal.

B. SHOWING THE ANIMAL - 70%

Exhibitor has control of the animal, has skill in keeping animal position to best advantage, maintains continuous attention, and shows ability to stand or move animal as requested by judge.

Showman should be dressed properly and use the correct equipment. They should display courtesy and sportsmanship in the show ring.

HERDSMAN AWARD

Department 555

Guest Judges

The fair provides an opportunity for 4-H/FFA members to present projects to Morgan County citizens.

To encourage neat and attractive exhibits, $25.00 will be awarded to outstanding herdsman in each livestock department. Livestock exhibitors should make a special effort to keep areas clean and presentable.

The following criteria will be used for selection of the winners:

- |   |           |
|---|-----------|
| 1. Sportsmanship  | 10 points |
| 2. Cleanliness of stalls                                    | 20 points |
| 3. Cleanliness of animals                                   | 20 points |
| 4. Neatness of aisle behind animal/pen                      | 10 points |
| 5. Promptness in entering show ring                         | 10 points |
| 6. Courtesy to judge and other people who may ask questions | 10 points |
| 7. Regularity of feeding and watering                       | 10 points |
| 8. Respect and care of facilities                           | 10 points |

Total Points - 100

Inspection will begin when animals arrive and continue through Thursday, when exhibits leave the grounds.
