Show Ring Code of Ethics

1. When requested by show officials, be able to show proof of ownership, length of ownership and age of all animals entered.
2. When requested by show officials, provide animal health certificates from a licensed veterinarian.
3. Junior exhibitors will care for and groom their own animals while at the fair or show.
4. Animals which will enter the food chain must be free of drug residues or foreign substances. For all animals, drugs may only be used in accordance with applicable federal, state and provincial laws. Any treatments at the show involving medications for the health of the animal must be administered by a licensed veterinarian. Show management or regulatory officials may take any samples they wish for testing.
5. Changing the animals performance, natural contour, conformation, or appearance through surgery, injection or application of substances such as irritants or counter-irritants is prohibited.
6. Showing and handling practices or devices to cause swelling are prohibited.
7. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, show management, other exhibitors or breed representatives is prohibited at all times. Problems will be resolved through appropriate channels.
8. No one may conspire, contribute to or cooperate with others to violate this code, either by their action or inaction.
9. Owners, exhibitors, fitters, trainers and participants are absolutely responsible for an animals condition whether or not they did something in violation themselves or knew of treatment that violates the code.
10. Exhibitors upon entry consent to disciplinary action for violation of the Code of Show Ring Ethics, including publishing the infraction and violators names.
11. Exhibitors verify that they have read and understand the Code of Ethics, as well as the consequences and penalties for violations. Exhibitors understand that evidence of violation of any law will be released to appropriate law enforcement authorities.

I agree to follow all of the rules established by the Mesa County Executive Fair Board and Rules Committee as listed in the Fair Book and supplements, including the Show Ring Code of Ethics. I understand I will take full responsibility for the care of my project while it is on display at the Fair. The Executive Fair Board will take precautions to assure its safety but cannot be legally held responsible for any loss or damage incurred.
